- _____ appears, in person, with his/her attorney.
- _____ does not appear, and has consented to the terms of this decree as evidenced by his signature below.
- _____ has wholly failed to respond or appear despite having been lawfully served, and is therefore in default.

The Court, having examined the files and records in this case, having fully considered the evidence, and being fully advised in the premises, FINDS:

1. District Court Rules. This decree complies with the following District Court Rules:
 1. District Court Rule 8.2
 2. 43 OS '551-101 et seq. (Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act)
 3. 28 USC '1738 (Parental Kidnapping Prevention Act)
 4. 43 OS ' 601-100 et seq. (Uniform Interstate Family Support Act)
 5. 28 USC '1738B (Full Faith and Credit of Child Support Orders Act)
 6. 43 OS 551-101 (Oklahoma Indian Child Welfare Act)
 7. 25 USCA 1981 et seq. (Indian Child Welfare Act)

2. Petitioner's Allegations. The allegations in Petitioner's Petition for Dissolution of Marriage are true.

3. Date of Marriage. The parties were married on the _____ day of _____, at _____ County, State of _____, and have been since that time and are at the present time husband and wife.

4. Petitioner's Residence. At the time of the filing of this Petition (check one):
_____ The Petitioner had been a resident of Oklahoma for the past six months, and had been a resident of _____ County for the past thirty days, or

_____ The Respondent had been a resident of Oklahoma for the past six months, and was a resident of _____ County at the time of the filing of the Petition.

5. Dissolution of Marriage. This Court hereby grants Petitioner an absolute Decree of Dissolution of Marriage upon the grounds of incompatibility from the Respondent. This decree shall operate as a dissolution of the marriage contract; save and except that within six months from the date of this decree, both parties are prohibited from marrying any person, except each other. This Court may dissolve this decree at any future time, if both parties to the divorce action file a petition, signed by both parties, asking that said decree be set aside and held for naught. Both parties seeking to have the decree set aside shall make proof to the court that neither one has married a third party during the time since the issuance of the decree of divorce.

6. Children. There have been _____ children, currently minors, born to the parties. The initials and dates of birth of these children are:
_____, dob _____

_____, dob _____

_____, dob _____

_____, dob _____

_____, dob _____

_____ Sole custody of the minor children to the Petitioner.

_____ Sole custody of the minor children to the Respondent.

_____ Joint custody of the minor children to both parties. The Joint Custody Plan, filed contemporaneously with this decree, shall govern the terms of custody.

9. Visitation Schedule. The parents shall exercise visitation with the children as follows:

10. Transportation. Petitioner shall pay _____% of the costs of transportation associated with visitation. Respondent shall pay _____% of the costs of transportation associated with visitation.

11. Relocation of Party. You, as a party in this action, are ordered to notify every other party to this action in writing of a proposed relocation of the child, change of your primary residence address, and the following information:

1. The intended new residence, including the specific address, if known;
2. The mailing address, if not the same;
3. The home telephone number, if known;
4. The date of the intended move or proposed relocation;
5. A brief statement of the specific reasons for the proposed relocation of a child, if applicable; and
6. A proposal for a revised schedule of visitation with the child, if any.

You are further ordered to give written notice of the proposed relocation or change of residence address on or before the sixtieth day before a proposed change. If you do not know and could not have reasonably known of the change in sufficient time to provide a sixty-day notice, you are ordered to give written notice of the change on or before the tenth day after the date that you know of the change.

Your obligation to furnish this information to every other party continues as long as you, or any other person, by virtue of this order, are entitled to custody of or visitation with a child covered by this order.

Your failure to obey the order of this court to provide every other party with notice of information regarding the proposed relocation or change of residence address may result in further litigation to enforce the order, including contempt of court.

In addition, your failure to notify of a relocation of the child may be taken into account in a modification of custody of, visitation with, possession of or access to the child. Reasonable costs and attorney fees also may be assessed against you if you fail to give the required notice.

If you, as the nonrelocating parent, do not file a proceeding seeking a temporary or permanent order to prevent the relocation within thirty (30) days after receipt of notice of the intent of the other party to relocate the residence of the child, relocation is authorized.
